

I currently listen to K-LOVE, which serves our local area with good Christian music. If LPFM is expanded this broadcast may be discontinued. Many people enjoy this station at home and while traveling in their cars commuting to work and home and from job to job. I believe this is an important alternative to the vulgar, loud music on several of the other stations. Please help us preserve these stations.